The hour at which the Democrats has been put to press, for some time past, has been the source of great annoyance to us and to our patrons. The very late hour at which dispatches are sent us, has, in the main, been the cause of this delay, but we shall, if possible, break up this serious complaint by putting an extra force upon our columns and closing in time to place the Democrat in the hands of our patrons at an earlier hour. A paper to be used and acceptable should reach its readers early in the morning. We intend that the Democrat shall reach our readers promptly and easily, in all parts of the city, and we trust that our patrons will report any failure on the part of our carriers.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.—Owing to the inclemency of the weather, on last evening, the attendance at this popular place of amusement was rather small. This evening the talented comedian, Mr. S. W. Ashby, takes his farewell benefit, upon which occasion he will present the laughs of the season. Mr. Ashby is a comedian of no ordinary ability, and we hope that his benefit, this evening, will be a flattering testimonial of appreciation. The "Jug-Jug Lesson" and "Beauty and the Beast" will also be presented, in which Mr. Scallan and Mr. Ashby will appear. Let there be a crowded house.

THOMAS BROWN.—A criminal trial, from April 21st to yesterday, before the Jefferson Circuit Court, ended at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, the Hon. P. B. Mair presiding.

The following cases were tried:

Thomas Brown and James Graham, for robbery; verdict guilty, and a year.

Wm. Fitzgerald, who was indicted jointly with the above parties was discharged, a sole prosecutrix being entered by the Commonwealth's attorney.

Sarah Roberts, f. w. c., stealing $100 in gold, found not guilty, and the prisoner was discharged.

The case of James Blackwell, indicted for aiding a slave to escape, was continued until the next term of the Court.

CASE SET.

The following cases were set for trial: Saturday 6th.—Frank St. John, murder.

Monday, 8th.—John Kennedy, larceny; Jas. Campbell (f. m. c.), larceny, and Kit. Sheehan, five indictments for larceny.

Tuesday, 9th.—John White and Charles Dix, three indictments for larceny.

Wednesday, 10th.—Edward Mitchell, indicted for murder; he is out on bail, the amount fixed being $1,000.

Thursday, 11th.—Geo. Hunt and Joe Smythe, larceny, and Lewis Jerome, the same.

Monday, 15th.—Caroline Miller, murder, and Obediah Stoof, indicted for the same offense.

Tuesday, 16th.—Elihu Fliley, murder, and Joe Hooker, larceny.

The Grand Jury returned a number of indictments, after which they adjourned to meet again next Monday morning.

Among the cases set for trial yesterday was that of James Thompson, a negro soldier, indicted for murder, who had been convicted at the last term of the court, but who had been granted a new trial. Just after the meeting of the court, a Captain appeared in court with an order on Judge Mair for the turning over of the prisoner to military authorities, signed by the Proctor General, General of the State. The Judge refused to comply with the order, and a short time afterwards Thompson was taken from the jail by a squad of soldiers. We understand that he will be tried by a military Commission.

The court will not meet to-day, owing to the fact that the Chancery Court meets. The Criminal Court will meet again at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

PRESERVATION.—A very pleasant meeting took place at Taylor Barracks Thursday, during which Major T. J. Swan was presented with a fine gold watch and chain by his numerous military friends and the members of Company Lodge No. 223, A. Y. M. The presentation speech, which was a very appropriate one, was made by John H. Howe, W. M. of Compass Lodge, to which Major Swan responded in a very happy manner. Major Swan has been Surgeon of the hospital in this city for a long time, and the presentation was a testimonial of their appreciation of him as an officer and gentleman. The watch bore the following inscription: "To Major T. J. Swan, from his friends and Masonic brethren, Louisville, Ky."

WEDNESDAY.—Aha!—Just as we expected. The clerk of the western bar got drunk, went crazy, was killed, or made away with himself. He left his wife here. She asked to have her kiss him for his mother, whereupon the impudent young scamp slapped the sun in the face, spied the moon, put out the east, stamped over the stars, upset the water works, threw balloons promiscuously, exclaimed, "I wonder if lightning?" and hid himself under the lap of his coat. Come, May, you and the Clark make up, be friends, and let your storm of passion be over. Kiss each other, and let us have a little pleasant weather.

POICE PROCEEDINGS.—Friday, May 5.—There was but little business transacted at the Police Court yesterday morning. Jilas Vacca, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; held to bail in $100 for commitment.

Jennette Whales (f. m. c.) disorderly conduct; held to bail in $100 for commitment.

Wm. Fliley, assaulting J. W. Johnson; referred to the Grand Jury.

James Whales, stealing $300 from Philip O'Donnell; held to bail in $400 to answer.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—We learn that on the 1st of May the safe of Little & Edwards, doing business in Azalia, Indiana, was broken open and robbed of some $10,000 worth of United States notes. No clue has yet been obtained as to who committed the robbery. The proprietors of the establishment offer a reward of $100 for the apprehension of the thieves.

COURT.—Yesterday being Chancery Court day, the Circuit Court did not meet. It will meet at 9 o'clock this morning. The following cases have been set for trial to-day: Wm. Lohn, Peter Ackerman and Joseph Shiever (two cases), all indicted for larceny; Wm. Howton, indicted for manslaughter; Samuel Arboe, indicted for aiding slaves to escape; and Frank St. John for murder.

By reference to our local notice column it will be observed that Dr. D. W. Stone, of this city, has formed a partnership with Dr. B. M. Glidell in the practice of dentistry. These gentlemen stand deservedly high in their profession, and merit a full share of patronage.

LAST Wednesday week Thos. Fliley was drowned at the foot of Third street. Yesterday evening his body was found at the foot of Third street, and the coroner being called upon held an inquest. The jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

COAL MERCHANTS.—We refer our readers and the public generally to the advertisement of Messrs. Hyatt, Snyder & Co., coal merchants, in another column. They are prepared to sell coal at moderate prices, wholesale or retail. Give them a call.

BUSINESS.—Business at the Barracks, yesterday, was livelier than usual. Thirty-seven convalescents arrived from different points. Fifty seven men were sent to Nashville, four to Lebanon, Kentucky, eight to Lexington, and thirty to Cairo.

A large number of discharged Government employees and discharged soldiers left this city yesterday morning, en route for their homes in different States north of the Ohio river.

A great many persons throughout the State are entering complaint against Captains Terrill and several associates to Major Palmer. We saw several, yesterday, from Mount Washington, Lawrenceburg, Monks' Sterling and other places, stating that Terrill took horses, clothing, and even committed worse depredations upon Union citizens. We are informed that Captain Terrill has not been in the neighborhood of the above place for some time, and when he was he did not take anything from anybody. While it may be true that depredations of this kind may have been committed, yet it is known to be true that parties who do commit them represent themselves as "Terrill's men." Guerrillas have been known to commit robberies, and even murders, representing themselves as "Terrill's men," leaving the impression prevailing in the minds of everybody that the name of Terrill is a terror in any community. Terrill's reputation as a bold, fearless, bad man, though a successful guerrilla leader, may be fully established, but "give the devil his due." We have had news of depredations, robberies, murders, arson, &c., being committed in the country by "Terrill's men," when in reality Terrill and his men were at the time 50 or 75 miles away from the scene. We do not know what depredations Terrill and his men may have committed, nor do we intend to defend him in any unsoldly acts that he may have committed, but we do know that a great deal of rascality is being done in this State by others who leave their "locks" for Terrill and others to wear.
